Funding Opportunity Number: PASNOFO-22-02
Deadline for Applications: April 07, 2022
Assistance Listing Number: 19.040 – Public Diplomacy Programs
Total Amount Available: $8,000

A. PROGRAM DESCRIPTION
The U.S. Embassy Addis Ababa / Bureau of African Affairs of the U.S. Department of State announces an open competition for organizations to submit applications to carry out a program to research, locate, and contact survivors of Yekatit 12 who were sheltered at the American Legation in Addis Ababa during the massacre. Please follow all instructions below.

Priority Region: Ethiopia

Program Objectives:
In February 1937, during the three-day long massacre of civilians known in Ethiopia as Yekatit 12, the American Ambassador to Ethiopia, Cornelius Van Engert, opened the doors of the American Legation in the Mercato district of Addis Ababa and offered refuge to several hundred Ethiopian families and individuals fleeing the massacres. As a result, at least 588 people, including 152 children, were sheltered inside the compound’s walls during the massacre and saved from almost certain death. The American Embassy to Ethiopia has a list of names of the male heads of households of the families who were harbored in the American legation during Yekatit 12, and wishes to locate and contact survivors of the massacre still alive, and their children.

Objectives and Goals:
1. Locate as many survivors and their children as possible, with an emphasis on finding those who are still able to recall and willing to talk about their experiences during Yekatit 12.
2. Communicate in person and directly with as many survivors and their children as possible and obtain from each their agreement to share their stories with the U.S. Embassy who will broadcast this to the Ethiopian public.

Budget and Scope of Work:
1. Undertake a research project to identify and locate the remaining survivors and their adult children (with less priority to find the grandchildren) especially those living in Addis Ababa, or within 200 km of the capital, but also any surviving children now residing in the United States.
2. Contact them to verify their identity, and to determine if they are able to accurately recollect and describe the events of Yekatit 12.
3. Conduct interviews with the survivors or their children on their accounts of Yekatit 12 and their stories while sheltered in the compound

4. Document their stories and prepare a presentation for the public audience upon request of the Embassy.

5. Applicants should budget for research time; costs for subscriptions or fees as required to gain access to civil records databases in Ethiopia, and if necessary, in the United States; mobile talk/data cost to reach survivors and their children; possible short travel to 3 – 4 cities or towns in Ethiopia outside of Addis, to attempt to locate and speak with survivors.

Participants and Audiences:
The Embassy plans to create a multimedia story based upon the recollections and stories from the survivors about the time they were harbored in the American legation, to include at least, but not limited to, possible radio broadcast, video-photo exhibition, voice recordings, and possible exhibition of mementoes and personal belongings from their time in the Legation. The audience is the broader Ethiopian public.
